

Casey GDPR – Client Consent to Share Residents Data

Casey undertakes contracting work for its clients and this may require the client to provide resident personal data. Casey will treat this data with the utmost care and confidence (see Casey GDPR: Client Resident Data).

On occasion, for the purposes of fulfilling its works under the contract (“The Works”), Casey may have the requirement to share certain resident personal data with 3rd parties.

Casey will obtain from these 3rd parties, confirmation that any such data provided will be processed in accordance with GDPR and will require the 3rd parties to sign a Data Processing Agreement which amongst other things requires the 3rd party to keep this data secure, not to share it with other parties and to delete the data once the works for which it has been shared have been carried out.

The client, by consenting to Casey sharing personal data with 3rd parties accepts that it does so according to the above procedures.

We

_____ (the client)

give Casey consent to share resident personal data to appropriate 3rd parties for the purpose of enabling Casey to fulfil its contracted works between Casey and the Client under the contract named;

_____ We understand that Casey and the 3rd parties will adhere to the requirements of GDPR and have signed processing agreements to this effect.

Signed _____ Date _____

Name of Client’s signatory

*Casey includes The Casey Group Limited and its subsidiaries